

Barony of Seagirt
Chronicler's Report
July 2006

I will be out of town for the months of September-December. Unfortunately, this means I will not be able to attend council during these months and cannot therefore take minutes. I will have a replacement minute-taker in place before September's council date. I am still able to update the website and answer emails as before, so this portion of the job will not be affected.