

Greetings unto the populace,

The second Seagirt populace badge has been submitted for registration. This will give the citizens of Seagirt more options to show their allegiance to the Barony.

I have finally made contact with Loch Soilleir requesting permission to conflict with their award of "the Otter of Loch Soilleir". I will discuss the details at council but the response so far has been favourable and it looks like we may finally get all our awards registered.

Not a lot of consulting going on, for some reason people seemed to think getting ready for some little thing called Daffodil was more important than doing research.

As far as I know there is still a Herald's Consult meeting scheduled for this Thursday April 6th. I will confirm with my deputy and post one way or the other.
